

CALLING ALL BDK's

I know you have seen the shirt and know the term, but what is a BDK?

A very special fraternity with membership restricted to only the most resilient of kids, the Band Director's Kid. Yes these kids of ours get it from both sides. Their peers ask them why their parent is doing ...whatever... and their parents ask them why the other students aren't doing...whatever. Thus was born their own special friendship. Oh yes, there are special requirements, i.e., if you know score order before you know your states, you might be a band director kid. If you know the music to your schools alma mater, but not the words, you might be a band director kid. If your parent's closet is filled with khakis and embroidered golf shirts, you might be a band director kid.

Terrific T's will be making BDK shirts in all sizes this year. The only catch is that you MUST PRE-ORDER. BDK shirts from previous years have been ash gray with the letters screen printed on the front. This year the shirt is being redesigned (new colors) so it might be time to replace that old BDK shirt. You may order any size, but you must be a BDK to wear the shirt (that's the rules).

Send your order, along with $10.00 per shirt in payment, directly to Terrific T's by July 1st.
